Rules and dealing procedures.

This game uses a six deck shoe only .

The game is blackjack with a side bet . The blackjack portion of the game may be dealt with any rules approved in the state of Washington .

The side bet works as follows Minimum is 1$ the maximum may be set by each Casino within state limits. Each Casino may set their own maximum aggregate payout as long as the minimum aggregate of $5,000.00 is met. Each casino may decide if they want to allow the player to play more on the side bet than the hand. If they choose to let a player bet more on the side bet they may limit how much more example. 2 times the amount bet on the hand .

After dealing every player 2 cards and 2 cards to the house, the dealer flips over their "up card"

Next, the dealer will take the next 4 cards out of the shoe and lay them face up to the right of the house up card.

The players first 2 cards of their blackjack hand and the dealers up card along with the 4 card flop make the players Texas 21 hand Using those 7 cards the player makes the best five card hand .Starting from the dealers right (3rd base) all bets are paid or taken in turn according to the following pay table. After finishing all side bets , the blackjack portion of the game proceeds as normal. If no player is playing the bonus the dealer will skip the 4 card flop and proceed directly to the blackjack portion of the game. Additional pay tables may be made available .
